Tropico and Glendale are practically one community, joining Los Angeles City on the north, the former five and the latter six miles in a direct line from the Court House in Los Angeles. Glendale is an incorporated city of the sixth class with about 2700 population. Pacific Electric cars leave Sixth street depot half hourly. Eagle Rock cars leaving Twelfth and Broadway every half hour, connecting at Eagle Rock with car for Glendale. Rapidly increasing in population and importance. Schools, churches, fraternal societies, business establishments and all the accessories of an up-to-date suburban community.

TO THE STRANGER IN OUR MIDST.
Saturday May 14th, 1910.

You are welcomed today to the Southern Gateway of the great San Fernando valley which stretches westward for twenty-five miles, encircled by the purple hills. Immediately about you can be seen the results of five years' development, although it was twenty-five years ago that the first of the home builders came. The new growth has sprung up since the electric railroad came, that greatest developer of the age. In this community is a population of over 5000 people and in the geometrical proportion in which we grow in this wonderful West, that number will be multiplied in the next five years. You are at the gateway of the valley, but it is more than this, it is the portal of a future that is so crowded with possibilities that it is difficult to grasp them. In the valley above us are thousands of acres of fertile land waiting only for the floods of the life-giving water that are already on their way from the peaks of snow and which will soon be let through the mountain barrier to the long waiting thirsty stretches of rich land. For down through this valley comes the great Owens river aqueduct carrying the water to the City of Wonder and incidentally to this and the other fields of possibility along its route. A few miles off to the northwest a splendid rancho of 140,000 acres is just being subdivided for settlement, the scheme for its development including the building of three towns, electric railroads, asphalted streets, schools, business establishments—everything that the fertile brain can suggest for quick development, all backed up by a syndicate that commands millions.

There are other sections of Southern California that have manifold attractions, which we would not minimize, but Glendale, Tropico, Burbank and Eagle Rock are willing to be judged upon their merits.

A century's retrospect is not a long stretch in this age of rapid living, the parents of some of the present generation reach back to it. Look! Along the route of the present San Fernando Road was the narrow beaten track of "El Camino Rey," the connecting link between the string of missions stretching from San Diego to San Francisco bay. No "good, broad highway" that, but a struggling pathway marked by feet of mules and men, and some of the men who trod it wearily through its six hundred miles or so of length, have been canonized since then, if not by the Pope, at least by the appreciative historians who have written of them. Among them and foremost in fame was Father Junipero Serra, who notwithstanding lameness is said to have walked over it often. Probably they stepped aside now and again to visit the faithful members of their flocks and enjoy the hospitality of Verdugo, Sanchez, Figueroa, Sepulveda and others,—names that were a part of that early history and which are still represented by their descendants among us. The Verdugos were established in the old ranch house in Verdugo canon with an outpost or two along the old Verdugo Road in Glendale's eastern limits.

The Sanchez homestead was at the base of the hills near Casa Verdugo and the old Casa was also peopled by some one of the families named. The first station on the "King's Highway" north of Los Angeles was the mission San Fernando, off in the center of the valley near the town of today that preserves the name, 15 miles north of us. The high hills of Los Feliz to the south on the other side of the river, have been witnesses of one eventful scene in the "Conquest of California" at least, for it was in their midst at Cahuenga that on the 13th of January, 1847, Gen. Andres Pico surrendered to Gen. John C. Fremont, the Mexican army of defence. The impression made upon the mind of some of those early comers by the beauty of this valley, is shown by the almost forgotten name which some one of them, a poet-priest probably, bestowed upon one of its entrances on the old Verdugo Road, "El Porto Cielo" (the Gate of Heaven). Whoever he was, he has long ago passed through the gateway of which he dreamed. To his spirit peace.

The decorators commenced work on Tuesday and the town by this time presents a truly gay appearance. Aside from the general scheme of street decorations, a number of private displays are especially attractive. The celebration committee offers prizes of ten and five dollars respectively for the two best displays in decorating made by individual or firm. The early fixing of the decorations has had the effect of awakening a more general interest in the day and as it approaches, there is a spirit of enthusiastic interest manifested in every quarter.

All of the committees have been busy at work and have their work well up. The contributions to the celebration fund have been exceedingly liberal and there will be no trouble about the financial part of the show. The Pacific Electric people have been distributing posters liberally for days past and the campaign of publicity has been generously helped by the Los Angeles papers, the Express and Examiner having been especially liberal.

The program as published last week will be practically adhered to, except that the Vaquero Club will give its performance at the baseball grounds, Fifth and Glendale; the field sports also being held there. In the latter there are about a dozen events, mostly short but generally laugh-provoking prizes will be published as soon as obtainable, which may not be until next week. Buttons have been ordered and are now on sale. The advertising committee has prepared a four-page folder printed at the local printers, which is a credit to the city and of which an edition of five thousand has been issued. There seems to be no doubt of the success of Glendale's Mid-May Festival. The program appears below:

OUR MUNICIPAL LIGHTING SYSTEM

What It Is and What It Has Done—
A Remarkable Success

The municipality of Glendale has been engaged for the past six months in testing the public ownership of utilities by a practical application of its results in the electric lighting field. The question which is first asked of any enterprise which seeks to justify itself is "Does it pay?" and if this test be applied to our electric lighting plant the answer cannot help but be a gratifying one. Although the plant has been in the hands of the city only since last November, it is already entirely self supporting, and taking care not only of the operating expenses, but of all the obligations of the bond issue with whose proceeds it has been constructed.

This has been done at the same time that the rate has been reduced below what seems to be possible in places of this size, where plants are owned by private companies. A comparison of lighting rates in the cities around Los Angeles will show that the only places of anywhere near the size of Glendale which supply electricity at rates comparable to our own are those where the plant is owned by the city.

The proposition of establishing a municipal lighting plant was first brought about by the difficulty of obtaining electric light over certain portions of the city, and the necessity of an adequate street lighting system. Matters were brought to a focus on the 22nd of June, 1909, when at a special election a bond issue of $30,000 was approved by a vote of 252 to 78.

The best mode of procedure seemed to be to eliminate all competition and to that end the existing plant of the Glendale Light and Power Company within the City of Glendale was purchased for $25,000, and arrangements were made by which current could be purchased from the Pacific Light and Power Company, as this company, with its large water power plants, could furnish electricity more cheaply than it could be generated by steam.

Extensions and reconstruction were started immediately and have continued until the present time. Almost the whole of the area of the City of Glendale has been covered with the lines, and they are rapidly being pushed into the territory as yet uncovered. All of the lines have been built of the heaviest construction and lines have been laid out so as to provide not only for present needs but to anticipate future growth, so that our rapid increase in population will not necessitate constant rebuilding of the system.

At the same time that the commercial lines have been built a complete street lighting system has been installed. The plan of street lighting employed is the newest and best that has been developed for this class of work. Tungsten lamps of forty candle power are used, placed at short intervals, the effect being a general illumination of moderate intensity, rather than an intense illumination in spots, followed by a darkness made more complete by contrast, as is the case where arc lamps are used in residence districts. One hundred and seventy-five of these lamps are now in place and more will be put in as soon as they can be obtained from the factory.

The electricity as it comes from the power companies is not in suitable form for general distribution and has to be converted from the very high voltage at which it is delivered to one more adapted to the work required. For this purpose a transformer station was built adjoining the fire house, and so designed as to form an extension to it. In the rear of this in a concrete vault opening only to the outside are placed two transformers of seventy-five kilowatt capacity for stepping down the current from 15,000 to 3200 volts. From here the current passes to the switchboard room, where equipment is provided for measuring and handling it.

In this room also is the regulator for governing the street lights, together with the time switch by which they are automatically controlled. Equipment is also provided for meter testing, and no meter is connected to the lines until its accuracy has been proved. This entails quite a large amount of work, but is amply justified by the certainty it affords that the meters are registering exactly what passes through them.

In front of the switchboard room is a general store room and shop where supplies are kept and ordinary repairs are made. The whole building is of brick, with cement floor and is well adapted to its requirements.

New consumers have averaged about forty a month since the acquisition of the plant. Practically every new house that is built is connected to the lines while the older houses are rapidly being wired. The volume of business done has shown a steady increase each month in spite of the fact that with the approach of summer less current is used by each consumer. Some delay has been occasioned in the building of new lines and the acquisition of new consumers by lack of wire, but this is now remedied and enough wire is on hand to finish all of the work contemplated. Seventy-five more street lights have been ordered and will soon be installed. Most of these are to be placed between those now in use, making the lights closer together in the more thickly settled districts and on the streets most traveled. All of the new construction works at present planned will be completed by about the first of July, and by early summer every one within the city may be supplied with the current.

CITY TRUSTEES

Hold Interesting Session—Numerously Signed Petition Against Proposed Ratification of Memorandum with P. E.

All members present except Mr. White. Mr. Anderson acting as president pro tem. A long list of demands was presented and referred; the heaviest one being for $2086.53 in favor of the American Steel and Wire Co., on account of the lighting department. Referred demands were reported back approved. Several ladies were present representing the improvement association, who made a plea for the passage of an ordinance providing for the care of parkways and vacant lots. The matter was referred to the board of public works. There was a large representation of citizens present who presented a numerous signed petition requesting that the proposed agreement with the Pacific Electric Railway company be not signed by the board of trustees and that steps be taken to condemn crossings at all street intersections across the company's right of way on Brand boulevard. The cause of the petitioners was presented by Mr. J. C. Beldin and a number of others. The trustees defended their action in unofficially agreeing to the memorandum, but all expressed themselves as willing to obey the wishes of their constituents. The petition was filed and referred to the committee of the whole for immediate consideration. A petition was received signed by Jas. Farrell and others for the improvement of Fourth street from Adams to Verdugo Road. Referred to the city engineer. A request was presented from the W. C. T. U. for permission to install a drinking fountain at the southeast corner of Fourth street and Glendale avenue. The same was granted. The finance committee recommended that the compensation of the building inspector be fixed at $70.00 per month, fees in excess of such sum to be referred into the general fund. Referred back to committee to take the matter up with the inspector. It was ordered that money received for rent of the city hall be credited to the street work fund. It was also ordered that lost dog tags be replaced at a cost of twenty-five cents. The annual report of the health officer was read and accepted and recommendations contained therein referred to police and sanitary committee. The matter of trimming street trees was referred to the street superintendent with power to act. A resolution was adopted approving map of Tract 340 and accepting streets and alleys shown thereon. The city marshal was authorized to employ deputies not to exceed twelve for the 14th of May, three of such deputies to receive $2.00 per day each. The street superintendent was instructed to clean up parkways on Fourth street, Everett to Brand boulevard and on Glendale avenue and Brand boulevard. Third street to Fifth street, and to have celebration grounds sprinkled. The city clerk was instructed to extend an invitation to the mayors of Los Angeles and other neighboring cities to be the guests of the city of Glendale on May 14th. It was ordered that the board of trade be granted the privilege of issuing concessions during the celebration on the 14th and that fees received for the same be turned over to the board. The manager of the electric light department was instructed to place lights at such points as may be designated by the committee on decorations. The matter of compensation for the health officer was referred to committee of the whole.

HENDRICKS' STORE ROBBED.

The dry goods store of R. L. Hendricks, at the corner of Fourth and Brand boulevard, was entered either Saturday or Sunday evening last and goods to the amount of nearly $100 stolen. Entrance was gained to the store through the rear window. The thief or thieves bored with an auger bit through the middle window sash, and unable to reach the safety latch by that method, the window was broken and a finger reached the opening and the latch turned. The window was then lowered and entrance gained. Marshal Miller believes the store was entered Saturday night, because the lantern which was on the street Saturday evening as a danger signal was missing Sunday morning and later was found in the store. It evidently having been used by the robbers. Mr. Hendricks' theory is that the store was robbed Sunday.

During the past two or three weeks several suspicious-looking characters have been walking the Glendale streets, and since the robbery all of these have been shadowed, but nothing has yet been learned which will lead to an arrest. It is the belief of some that the theft was committed by one or more young fellows who have been making it a habit of late to loaf around the Pacific Electric building on Brand boulevard.

The till was opened by unscrewing it from the under side, but when it was found that it was impossible to secure any money then, the till was destroyed. The robbers got very little change out of the till, but were successful in finding a Masonic watch chain, which was highly prized by Mr. Hendricks.

GLENDALE, CAL., MAY 13, 1910

Mr. Halley's comet can now be observed by the early riser who looks carefully at the right spot. The majority of us who prefer the luxury of the morning nap, will wait until the show is scheduled for an evening performance, about May 19th.

In a New Jersey town a prominent woman suffragist is taking a side trip into another field of activity and is agitating the question of bearding the cats, so that the birds when napping may not be caught unawares. It is rumored that the mice in the town will give the lady their unanimous support whenever she runs for anything.

The editor of the Hollywood Sentinel laments the fact that when the Rev. Dana Bartlett lectured there by invitation recently, he was greeted by a lonesome array of empty benches. Of the people who were not there he says, "They were at home taking their ease, leaving the moral welfare of their community to the new policeman in his starched clothes. They were in Los Angeles attending a theater feasting their weary souls on the smut of the stage. They were everywhere but in the presence of the world-renowned rescue worker, Dana Bartlett." From which it is to be inferred that our Hollywood neighbors are pretty much the same sort of people that we have elsewhere. They have their time-killing social functions, their church and lodge meetings to attend and outside of these ruts there is little doing.

Mr. "Battling" Nelson, the prize-fighter, was refused accommodations at an exclusive Philadelphia hotel and in obedience to his battling instinct he did not throw the hotel manager into an area or a fit or anything of that sort, he just brought suit against him for refusing accommodations to a "gentleman." Mr. Nelson has our sympathy; the Philadelphia hotels have entertained very many guests since time immemorial, far less worthy than he. Has the time arrived, forsooth, when a gentleman who makes his living by his hands (fists, if you please) must get down on his knees to the lordly proprietor of a "classy" Philadelphia boarding house who fancies that a man who makes it his business to maul his fellowmen for a vulgar monetary consideration, is not worthy to eat "peper pot," cheese cake, "scrapple" and other Philadelphia dishes at his table?

Perish the thought! It is to be hoped that Mr. Nelson will win his suit, against the haughty hotel man and get damages for his bruised feelings—as much as thirty cents worth.

The house of representatives has passed the railroad regulation bill presented by President Taft and it now goes to the senate. This is a victory for the president and he needs it for his encouragement, for he has received few bouquets since he became our chief magistrate. The proposed law is believed a long step in the right direction and we hope to see it adopted. It has taken a great deal of agitation and years of effort on the part of a few genuine reformers to arrive at this legislation which promises to do away with many of the abuses of power of which the railroad companies have been guilty. It is noticeable that the president is slowly regaining in some measure the popularity which he lost on account of his approval of the Payne-Aldrich tariff measure. Even the people to whom he was a disappointment, did not lose confidence in his honesty and will be quick to return to their allegiance when they become familiar with the work that the president has been quietly doing in the way of good laws. The people have a fine large way of jumping at conclusions in regard to public matters without necessarily being well informed as to the question at issue, but in time they arrive at fairly just conclusions and it is entirely possible that in the end President Taft will be justified.

RESPECT THE FLAG.

At the last meeting of the Improvement association, Mr. Edgar Leavitt called attention to the neglect of the American flag where it flies from public buildings and suggested that the proper spirit of patriotism demands that more attention be given to the nation's emblem. The flag is frequently hoisted to the top of a building and allowed to flap in the breeze night and day in all sorts of weather, until it is worn to shreds. Mr. Leavitt's point is well taken. The flag deserves better care than it sometimes receives, and when unfurled in all its glory to the free air, it should be borne in mind that it is composed of destructible material and unless properly cared for is far from being representative of an indestructible union. Patriotic citizens are willing to risk much to protect the flag from falling to the ground, but how much better than letting it come in contact with the soil, is the carelessness which allows it to be beaten to shreds against the flagpole. It would be an excellent idea for every community to have a flag "raising" and a flag "lowering" hour, a common agreed upon time, night and morning. The observance of such a custom would go far to inculcate the spirit of patriotism—not only in the minds of the young generation, but in those of the careless and thoughtless older ones as well.

LOS ANGELES AND THE CENSUS.

They are guessing that the count of the people just completed by the United States authorities, will foot up in Los Angeles a total of three hundred thousand. It must be guess work, for the local officials are not permitted to divulge the information they have gained. Probably, the estimate is about correct; whatever the result may be we can well believe that the city will be credited with fully as many people as belong to it. The enumerators have raked the town as with a fine-tooth comb. They have not only caught the people who rightly claim Los Angeles as their home, but they have taken advantage of every doubt and have enumerated hundreds who belong in adjoining towns. In a number of instances we have heard of Glendale people employed in the city have been enumerated there and in one case a citizen of this place was held up by an enumerator in the neighborhood of Hollywood and forced to deliver his name and the names of the members of his family, to swell the grand total of the population of Los Angeles and incidentally the remuneration of the enumerator at three cents per! The truth about the population of Los Angeles is remarkable enough to satisfy all but the insatiate; anything more is, as Mrs. Partington might say "a superfluity of superfluity."

THE DEATH OF THE KING.

The death of King Edward comes as a shock to the world, for it was only within a day or two of its occurrence that the fact of his being seriously ill was generally known. And the shock was greater from the fact that the ideal of the king, gathered from his various pictures and what the world at large knew of his life, was that of the typical hale and hearty Englishman, the ideal of health and virility. But he has passed away and on the throne of the greatest empire in the world sits the new king, George V.

As the Prince of Wales, the late king won the affection of his people and when he ascended to the throne he had the good wishes of the world which he well maintained through the ten years that he filled the place of Victoria. He well deserved the title of the "First Gentleman of Europe," and probably no one else could have so well performed the duties of his exalted place, for he possessed a mind above the average in ability and was fitted for the position by many years of special training. His son who succeeds him is generally supposed to lack much of his father's ability and is not such a favorite with the people. It has sometimes been said that the president of the United States has more power than the king of England, but this is not strictly true. Every measure passed by parliament requires the signature of the king before it becomes a law; he, therefore, possesses the power of the veto and from that veto there is no appeal as there is from the veto of the president.

It is also his high prerogative to create new peers and so force a measure through the House of Lords. At the same time these prerogatives are rarely exercised.

In many ways the king can do much to shape legislation, and the late ruler was severely criticized very recently for not interfering more than he did in this direction. There is in England as in the United States a fever of unrest, a desire to overturn things, and the pathway of King George does not promise to be among primroses and daffodils. The best part of the civilized world will give its heartfelt sympathy to the English people in their affliction and many a prayer will be uttered in all sincerity that the new ruler of this (barring our own) the greatest nation "in the foremost files of time," may be endowed with the wisdom that his high position needs!

AN OPTIMIST—WHY?

A recent comer to California can afford to be a pessimist when it comes to anticipating the future development in Southern California, but one who has lived here for twenty years or more finds no room in his mind for anything contrary to rank optimism. In 1880 the census credited Los Angeles with 11,000 people and they were probably all counted. In 1890 the enumerators found 44,000 people, and in 1900 over 104,000. The rank optimist of this (barring our own) the greatest nation "in the foremost files of time," may be endowed with the wisdom that his high position needs!

direction accomplished wonders because it possessed machinery for the work far superior to that of any preceding era, but who shall limit the possibilities of the decade now beginning with every instrument of development multiplied in power? California grows by geometrical progression and by this growth is becoming the wonder of the world. Every person coming here from the world outside to make this his home brings others, and they others in turn swell the population of the state.

An optimist? Why the man who is otherwise out here on the edge of the earth is worse than a pessimist, he is a door-jamb, a fencepost, a wooden image.

INCONSISTENT POLITICS.

The Artesia News notes the inconsistency of certain politicians; journalistic and otherwise, who but a few months ago were crying for a division of the state of California on the ground that the southern part of it could never get justice from the north, but who have since picked out and are supporting a man from northern California for governor. Our contemporary is quite correct in its criticism and has ample grounds to stand upon.

The attempt to work up a feeling of sectionalism which might result in a division of the state, fell flat as it deserved to fall. This paper pointed out the foolishness of the movement at the time and called attention to the fact that the new apportionment based on the census of 1910 would give Southern California almost twice as large representation in the legislature as we now have and that our influence in state affairs is destined to increase with the marvelous increase in our population, so that the northern section of the state whatever its inclination, will be unable to treat us otherwise than fairly, for we shall soon be "in the saddle" at Sacramento.

A leopard may not change his spots but a "reform" politician can quickly change his base, and now we behold some of the leaders of the state divisionists, backing Hiram Johnson of San Francisco for governor. Sectionalism should have but little influence in choosing candidates for state offices, and yet, other things being equal, geographical conditions may be given weight. Los Angeles has a candidate for governor in the person of Hon. P. A. Stanton. Mr. Stanton has an unusually clean record through a legislative experience of several years, a record which proves him to be a man of independence in thought and action, while Mr. Johnson has absolutely no record save that of a criminal lawyer, responsible very largely for turning loose Abe Rueff and clients of his who should have served time behind prison walls. There were no doubt reasons why a half dozen men from the south should have gone to San Francisco for a candidate when there was a good one at home, but as the general public is not informed as to their nature the people are justified in the conclusion that they are not of a kind for publication. We hazard a guess that the principal reason was that Mr. Johnson was pilable and programmatic; two qualities which Mr. Stanton are noticeably conspicuous by their absence. It was clearly in the agreement that the candidate for governor should be from the north and the lieutenant governor from the south, hence the selection of Mr. Wallace. But there does not need to be even this concession to northern California, as for many years past both governor and lieutenant governor have come from the north—the south should have two or three terms of both of these officials to even things up.

A LAW FIRM FOR GLENDALE.

This fast-growing vicinity of some 5000 to 6000 people has heretofore had no firm of attorneys and our people have been at the inconvenience of going to Los Angeles for all matters of legal advice. The members of the new firm are well known and are prepared to do successful work along any branch of the legal field.

The junior member of the firm, Mr. Ray E. Goode is a son of Mr. E. D. Goode, our well known real estate and railway man of Glendale. He has grown up here among us, was educated in our public schools, graduating from our Union High school. He afterward completed a thorough three-years' course in law at the University of Southern California, graduating and receiving the degree of bachelor of laws therefrom. He was at once admitted to practice in all of the courts of California, and to the Federal courts. Since that time he has had office practice in Los Angeles.

With his good natural ability and his careful preparation he is well fitted for the work of a practicing lawyer. He was a member of the Glendale High School debating team of 1905 and also belonged to the U. S. C. Law School Debating club, besides having three years' experience in the college courts of the law school.

During his last year at college he has worked in the offices of a practicing attorney thereby gaining knowledge of the office work.

The senior member of the firm, Mr. P. S. McNutt, has been in the practice of law for sixteen years, the past six years having offices in Los Angeles. He has had exceptional preparation and qualification as a lawyer. Added to the general learning obtained at the public schools and preparatory academies, he was graduated from the state college at Edinboro, Pa., receiving the degree of bachelor of the elements; was graduated from the Drake university with the degree of bachelor of arts; received the degree of master of arts from Des Moines college; graduated from the Iowa College of Law at Des Moines, Iowa, receiving the degree of bachelor of laws. He was for nine years general manager and secretary of one of the leading lecturers in his alma mater law school, one of the largest law schools in the country, and now a department of Drake university. He is admitted to practice law in Iowa, Nebraska, and California, by the supreme courts of these states, and has had successful practice in each of them, and has been admitted to the U. S. district and circuit courts.

It will appear therefore that the firm is able to do the public good service in its field. It will do a general law business.

Give you counsel upon all legal matters; write contracts, leases, deeds; write wills, articles of partnership, install corporations, etc. Will settle up estates of deceased persons, do collecting and adjust all sorts of difficulties arising out of personal and property rights.

The new firm have offices at present in the Glendale Bank building, corner Fourth and Glendale avenues. They will also still continue their law offices at 624 San Fernando building, Fourth and Main streets, Los Angeles.

Above is the sad news in brief of what happened to Glendale baseball fans and players last Saturday at the ball park.

Sepulveda of San Pedro team out-pitched Mitchell of the Glendale High team, but errors by our boys at critical moments lost the game for Glendale High.

It was a case of too much confidence in the second game, as our city team has beaten the Union Hardware and Metal team twice, although it took 12 innings to turn the trick, the second time. Last Saturday the Metal Co. had a stronger line-up than before and although we evened the score in the ninth inning our boys went to pieces in the tenth and with two hits and three errors the Los Angeles boys put three runs across the plate and won the game.

But let's forget it and turn our attention to the big game tomorrow (Saturday) as our boys will have their hands full in taking care of the crack Alhambra team which will come over and play our boys at 4 p. m. Don't forget the time. Manager Valentine has strengthened his team with the best available material in the valley and will use all fair means to win. Come and boost for the home team and encourage them all you can, for they will certainly need it. Glendale City and Alhambra holds the best record of any amateur teams in the county and as there is to be a league formed, tomorrow's game is very important.

Your Checks are Receipts

"Pay as you go" is an excellent maxim provided you "pay-by-check." It's foolish to carry money on the person, except for the smallest purchases and incidentals, for aside from the care and inconvenience there is always the danger of theft or loss.

But with a check-book of this bank in your pocket the inconvenience and worry is eliminated. You write out a check for the exact amount of each purchase, your check-stub is a record for reference and the check itself will later be returned to you by the bank and may be retained as a receipt.

Some persons may think of the check account as being complicated. Nothing could be more simple, however. We keep books for you and there is a record for your every transaction.

GLENDAL, CAL., MAY 13, 1910

NOTICE OF SALE OF ELECTRIC RAILROAD FRANCHISE.

Notice is hereby given that application has been made to the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale in the County of Los Angeles, State of California, for a certain franchise, granting the right to construct, maintain and operate for the term of forty-seven years, an electric railroad upon certain public streets in the said City of Glendale, hereinafter described, together with certain appurtenant and incident rights hereinafter mentioned, and that it is proposed by the said Board of Trustees to grant the same upon the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned; that said franchise is described as follows, to-wit:

A franchise to construct, maintain and operate for the period of forty-seven years, an electric railroad for the transportation of passengers, to be single or double track, in whole or in part, at the option of the grantee thereof or his or its successors or assigns, over the route and along and upon the streets or portions of said streets in said City, described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at a point in Glendale Avenue where the Western prolongation of the Southern line of Lot Eight (8) in Block Twenty (20) of the Town of Glendale, as per map recorded in Book 21, pages 89 and 90 Miscellaneous records of Los Angeles County, California, intersect a line situated 13 feet Easterly from and parallel with the center line of Los Angeles, San Pedro & Salt Lake Railroad, thence Northerly parallel with the center line of said railroad to the Northerly City boundary line of the City of Glendale.

Together with the right to construct curves and switches and spur tracks into private property, also connections at street intersections, power houses and all other appliances, property, structures and attachments that may be necessary for the purpose of operating said road, and enabling it to be as effective as the best electric railroad; provided, however, that no spur track into private property shall be built within 500 feet of any spur track already constructed under said franchise, without first securing proper consent of the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale.

That the terms and conditions upon which said franchise will be offered for sale, and granted, are the following, to-wit:

First. That the railroad to be constructed and operated under said franchise shall be used for the transportation of passengers, baggage, United States mail, Express matter and such other commodities as can be conveyed by an electric railroad, provided that cars other than closed ones, of a neat and attractive design, shall only be conveyed over said road between the hours of nine o'clock p. m. of each day and six o'clock a. m. of the following day; also such material as is used in the construction of the Glendale and Eagle Rock Railway from its northerly beginning to its present eastern terminus in Eagle Rock valley, existing at this date, and for such other extensions thereof as may from time to time be constructed within the City Limits of the City of Glendale.

That the tracks to be laid under said franchise shall be placed thirteen (13) feet from center line to center line. Second. That said grantee or his or its successors or assigns shall use good material in the construction of said road, and said road shall be built in a good and workmanlike manner, and that said grantee and his or its successors or assigns shall at his, its or their own cost and expense, oil and re-oil, pave or macadamize the said road between the rails, between the tracks and for two feet on each side thereof, with the same material used by the City, and under the same specifications and in the same manner as upon the streets over which said roads are respectively, and shall keep the same constantly so paved or macadamized and in repair flush with said streets and provided with suitable crossings, and shall make the roadbed conform at all times to the established grade of said streets; provided, however, that where any of the above named streets have been graded or otherwise improved prior to the granting of said franchise, said roadbed and rails shall conform to and be flush with the surface of said graded or streets, whether such surface of said street or streets, and on all other street or streets the said roadbed and rails shall conform to such official grade as aforesaid.

In case the said grantee or his or its successors or assigns, shall fail to comply with the instructions given for said repairs for ten days after service of notice thereof upon the Superintendent or Manager of said electric railroad, then the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale may, with suitable assistance, enter upon said electric railroad, or any portion thereof, and do the work and furnish the proper material and keep an itemized account of the cost thereof, which said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, by the acceptance of this franchise agrees to pay immediately to the Treasurer of the City of Glendale upon the presentation of the account to the Superintendent or Manager of said electric railroad.

Provided further, that cars shall be run over the road constructed under said franchise every day, unless prevented by the elements, riots, strikes or unavoidable causes; provided also, that cars shall be run over and upon said road at intervals of not more than one (1) hour from seven o'clock a. m. until ten o'clock p. m. of each day, and as much oftener as may be necessary to properly accommodate all persons who apply for transportation over said road, except in times of extraordinary and unforeseen amounts of travel.

Provided further, that said grantee and his or its successors or assigns shall have the right to excavate and remove portions of said streets necessary to properly construct said road and to erect useful apparatus, boilers, engines and other appliances to properly equip and run said road; provided further, that the City of Glendale, in granting said franchise, expressly reserves the right to pave, macadamize, renew or sewer any of said streets, or to lay gas, water or other pipes therein; said work to be done so as to injure said road as little as possible.

It is further provided that said grantee, and his or its successors or assigns, shall construct all necessary flumes and culverts for the free passage of water under the tracks of said railroad whenever and wherever necessary, and that all such flumes and culverts shall be constructed in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the City Engineer, and whenever required by said City of Glendale.

Third. That the grantee of said franchise and his or its successors or assigns, shall and will at all times upon and after the completion of said road, during the operation of the same and without extra charge, issue to and receive from passengers going in one direction, transfers good for one continuous passage over and upon any and every other line and upon any other road or roads to any points within the said City, which said grantee or his or its successors or assigns does now, or may hereafter own, control, operate or have a controlling interest in. And provided as a further condition that said grantee, and its successors or assigns shall and will at all times as aforesaid, issue or cause to be issued to said passengers, without extra charge, a similar transfer from any and every other line or lines, which said grantee, or its successors or assigns does now, or may hereafter own, control, operate or have a controlling interest in within said City of Glendale as aforesaid, to, over and upon the road operated and maintained under said franchise within the City Limits of the City of Glendale, and provided further, that such transfers shall be given and received as above provided, over and upon all such roads within the City Limits of the City of Glendale whether operated under a franchise granted by said City, or over and upon private rights-of-way owned or occupied by said roads within the City Limits of the City of Glendale.

Fourth. That the rate of fare for any distance within the City Limits over said road or its branches one way in the same direction shall not exceed five cents per one passenger; that persons under the age of eighteen years who attend the public schools of said City shall be required to pay but half fare; provided that said pupils shall purchase their tickets in quantities of at least One dollar's worth at a time, such tickets to be available only between the hours of eight o'clock a. m. and six o'clock p. m., in actual passage to and from school, and the said grantee and his or its successors or assigns, shall sell such tickets whenever requested so to do, when schools are in session, by a pupil who shall present a certificate from a teacher, approved by the principal of such school, that he or she is a pupil of the said school;

Provided further, that said grantee, his or its successors or assigns, shall carry free on said cars the City Marshal and deputies, and all regular police officers, and firemen of said City, when on duty, and letter carriers, subject at all times to the rules of the road.

Fifth. That the person, partnership, or corporation to whom said franchise is granted or awarded, his or its successors or assigns, shall, during the life of said franchise, pay to the City of Glendale, in lawful money of the United States, two per cent of the gross annual receipts of said grantee and his or its successors or assigns, arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise, no percentage shall be paid for the first five years succeeding the date of this franchise, but thereafter such percentage shall be payable annually, and said franchise is to be forfeited by failure to make the payments provided for, and it shall be the duty of the grantee of said franchise, his or its successors or assigns, to file with the City Clerk of the City of Glendale, at the expiration of six years from the date of granting of said franchise, and at the expiration of each and every year thereafter, a statement, verified by the oath of said grantee, his or its successors or assigns, or presiding officer of the manager of said franchise, or his or its successors or assigns, showing the total gross receipts and gross earnings collected or received by the said grantee, his or its successors or assigns, during the preceding twelve months, and within ten days after the time for filing such statement it shall be the duty of said grantee, his or its successors or assigns, to pay to the City Treasurer of the said City of Glendale the aggregate sum of said percentage arising from the gross annual receipts arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise.

Sixth. That the work of constructing said road shall be commenced in good faith within not more than four months from the date of the granting of said franchise, and shall be prosecuted thereafter in good faith and without unnecessary or avoidable interruption or delay, and that said work of construction shall be completed within not more than three years thereafter, and if said work be not so commenced, prosecuted and completed within the times, or in the manner specified, such franchise shall be forfeited.

Seventh. That all poles used in the construction and operation of said electric road shall be placed within the curb line of the streets herein designated as officially established by the Board of Trustees of the City of Glendale, and the outer edge of poles shall in all cases be set as near the inner edge of the curb as practicable, when not otherwise directed by said Board of Trustees, and the wires suspended from said poles shall not at any point be less than nineteen (19) feet above the top of the rail; said poles shall be smooth, straight, and painted in uniform color.

That any neglect, failure or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise, shall thereupon immediately, ipso facto, effect a forfeiture thereof, and the said City, by its Board of Trustees, may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited, and may exclude said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, from further use of the streets of said City, under said franchise, and said grantee, shall his or its successors or assigns, shall immediately surrender all rights in and to the same, and said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

If said bond be not so filed, the award of said franchise will be set aside, and any money paid therefor will be forfeited.

FACTS NOT FANCIES.

"The Mind and the Body."
(For the GLENDALE NEWS)

More than twenty centuries ago Plato wrote: "The office of the physician extends equally to the purification of the mind and body; to neglect the one is to expose the other to evident peril. It is not only the body that by its sound constitution strengthens the soul, but the well-regulated soul by its authoritative powers maintains the body in perfect health."

Nevertheless the Christian Scientists and the New-thoughters with the innumerable brood of quacks and fakirs who make the mind their special province, think, and they try to make other people think, that they have discovered something new, when they tell you that the mind has a wonderful influence over the body.—Plato's old statement, Of course it has, but not greater—if as great—as the body has on the mind. Did any one ever see a strong mind in a poor, diseased body? And did the mind ever develop without a good healthy body? Never, and it never can. The one is by our Creator made dependent on the other in this life and cannot be separated without loss or entire destruction.

Corsets and Perfumes.

It is natural that the independent thinker who sees so many customs which have not the slightest justification and the uselessness or even injuriousness of which is beyond question, should assume a critical attitude toward all customs and habits, the raison d'être of which is not clearly apparent, and it is natural that it should occasionally go astray or to extremes. We see this in the matter of the corset. That was and is the cause of multitudinous evils with little good in its favor, but now we are beginning to find even it has its place and is a positive benefit to some if properly fitted. The abuse of the corset is bad, but a proper body brace is of incalculable value to some women. It, no doubt, is true a few women have no need of the corset, but these happy specimens of the female sex are by no means in the majority.

The same may be said of perfume: we have seen people who look down superciliously upon any woman who uses perfume, and consider it a vulgar habit.

To use had or loud perfume is pernicious, and to use good perfume in excessive quantities, is certainly in poor taste, but for many it not all women at times it becomes an absolute necessity, adding to the comfort of the user and the pleasure of those with whom they associate. Again most perfumes are strongly antiseptic, and there is no question that in many cases they ward off disease and infection. Bacteria do not like cologne.

COURAGE AND BACKBONE ALONE NOT NECESSARILY ENTITLED TO RESPECT.

"He has backbone, he is obstinate as a bulldog; he has courage; he is fearless," thus I have heard people say of a man who to me was nothing but contemptibly repulsive, while my friend was his supreme admirer. Why? I think because he does not go far enough into the man and his motives. It is time to emphasize that backbone, courage, obstinacy and fearlessness, while admirable qualities, under some circumstances may be and are villainous under other conditions. In other words, are not alone of themselves to be admired. It all depends in what cause and for what purpose they distinguish themselves in their display. To illustrate, the trust magnate who determines to crush every rival and trample over every obstacle in his path regardless of consequences, certainly has backbone; or the embryonic financier who makes up his mind to reach to the top of the ladder and though to do so requires the most pernicious methods and uses of his fellowmen, who has no conscience, may reach his goal, and surely possesses that quality to a marked degree of obstinacy. The burglar who risks his life to obtain unjust gain, must possess calm and courage to the last degree. The old-time pirate and bandit who allowed no obstacle to stand between him and the coveted prize, we must say, was fearless. But we cannot fail to feel somehow that we have no admiration for such because the courage is not worthy of the steel; in other words he is no lover of the human family, the milk of human kindness does not flourish in his bosom, while the man who in war days risked the detection of his hiding place to save an infant, demands our highest commendation and admiration.

Big Hats in Colonial Days.

The question of high hats at public places was of some moment, even in colonial days. In 1769 the church at Andover, Mass., put it to vote whether "the parish disapprove of the female sex sitting with their hats on in the meeting house in time of divine service as being indecent." In the town of Abington in 1775 it was voted that it was "an indecent way with the feminine sex to sit with their hats and bonnets on in worshipping God." Still another town voted that it was the "town's mind" that the women should take their bonnets off in meeting and hang them on the pegs.

Too Costly.

King George II. once wished to add the Green park, in London, to his palace grounds, whether the people liked it or not. He inquired of his minister as to the cost.

His lordship, mindful of the general discontent then prevalent, answered: "The cost, sir? Oh, it would be a matter of three crowns!"

The king took the hint. The people kept their park and the sovereign his triple throne.

Merciful.

Mrs. A.—I do love lobsters, but I never have them at home because it seems so inhuman to kill them by putting them in a kettle of boiling water. Mrs. B.—Gracious! I never kill them that way—it would be too horrible. I always put them on in cold water and let them come to a boil.—Boston Transcript.

No Satisfying Her.

"Women are hard to understand."
"Think so?"
"Yes; I told her she carried her age well, and she was offended."
"You don't say!"
"Yes, and then I told her she didn't carry it well, and she wouldn't speak."—Philadelphia Record.

Misnamed.

Wife—I say, do you know the girl in the flat above us won a piano at the charity bazaar lottery yesterday? Husband—A piano? Great Scott! And that's what they call a charity bazaar!—Meggendorfer Blatter.

Ever Faithful.

"He's always wanting to borrow money from me."
"A fair weather friend merely?"
"Oh, no. He has also borrowed several umbrellas."—Pittsburg Post.

His Voice.

Polly Pinkights—What sort of voice has the new tenor? Fanny Footlights—Bum! You can almost see through the crack in it.—Philadelphia Record.

The Thorneycroft Club of Glendale was most delightfully entertained with a dancing party on Thursday evening of last week at the charming home of the secretary, Mrs. R. A. Petersen.

Among the pleasing features of the evening were piano solos rendered by Miss Goodrich and Mr. Anderson in their usual artistic manner. Besides members of the club there were present about twenty invited guests. In every way this was one of the most delightful of the many enjoyable affairs given by the members of this club during the season just drawing to a close.

City Engineer Lynch has been working with the engineer of the highway commission in establishing grades on the San Fernando road at Tropic. It is understood that bids on that portion of the Good Roads system will soon be advertised. The Los Feliz road over the hills and crossing the Los Angeles river, is almost completed to the San Fernando road; at least the work on the main roadbed is finished but there remains the improvement to be made on either side in accordance with the general plan which provides for the roadway which is 18 feet wide in the center for heavy teaming flanked by improved roadways on either side for lighter work.

Next Wednesday, at about half past six in the evening the earth will take an involuntary plunge through several hundred thousand miles of the tail of the great comet, but as we are assured that the density of the matter composing it is almost inconceivably small, much less, in fact, than that of any vacuum which it is possible to produce in the laboratory, its effect on the earth will be absolutely nil. There may be unusual light effects, however, which should be watched for carefully. The nearest approach of the comet to the earth will take place on Friday, when it will be only 14 million miles away. But that is a perfectly safe distance.

St. Mark's branch of the Woman's Auxiliary held its last meeting for the year, Wednesday morning, April 27, at the parish hall. Officers elected for the ensuing year were president, Mrs. D. Winslow Hunt; vice president, Miss Mallett; secretary, Mrs. Robert Morris; treasurer, Mrs. Andrew McIntyre. Arrangements are completed for sending the Alaska box into the city.

The members of the branch have certainly made a creditable showing for the past year. Three missionary boxes were prepared and sent, valued at fifty dollars. All pledges were paid, in all $69.40. This amount does not include but seven dollars of the money expended in beautifying and furnishing the chancel. A new carpet has been laid, fresh hangings and desk coverings and much fine white linen prepared for use in the altar service, each season of the church year. All this good work was done by the altar guild and their friends, but to the president, Mrs. Robert Morris, belongs the sole honor of conceiving and carrying out these improvements. Mrs. Morris is also president of the Babies' branch of the Woman's Auxiliary and reports gifts amounting to three dollars contributed by the wee ones of the auxiliary.

THE GOODE FRANCHISE.

The application of E. D. Goode to the supervisors for a franchise over the county road from Glendale's north ern limits some distance northward towards Verdugo Park, has been refused on account of the narrowness of the road, it being only 30 feet wide. It is understood, however, that Mr. Goode will be able to arrange for a private right of way which will answer his purpose just as well and that he will still be able to make good his promise to have his road in operation from Glendale to the park by July 4th. The advertisement of the sale of a franchise for this road up Glendale avenue to the city limits is now being published.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henry Weston, who for the past few weeks have been staying in Pasadena, are expected to return to their cottage on the Chandler ranch in West Tropico Sunday. They will be accompanied by the new arrival, Master Chandler Weston.

Mr. Bondy, colored, residing on Glendale avenue near G. A. R. hall, was arrested a week ago last Sunday on a complaint filed by his wife that he was disturbing the peace. When brought before Justice Melrose Monday afternoon he pleaded guilty and after a severe reprimand he was released on parole for ninety days.

The many friends of Mrs. John Lee Kirkham, formerly Miss Madeline Malcolm, will be pleased to learn that she is very much improved. Mrs. Kirkham while visiting her parents, Prof. and Mrs. William Malcolm, of El Monte, former residents of Tropico, was taken ill with measles and was reported in a very precarious condition, soliciting much sympathy from her numerous Tropico friends.

Judge Shelton of Burbank put an attachment on the fumes and houses of the Japanese who were working on his place. The fumes owed him $250 for rent and water, and early this week skipped the country, going in the neighborhood of Riverside. Constable Catlin went to Riverside Tuesday to round up the offenders but as yet it has not been learned whether or not he was successful.

Shirley Parsons, brother-in-law of Justice Melrose, was injured in a mine at Rosamund last week, and on Sunday was brought by Mr. Melrose, Cover Melrose, manager of the mine, and O. S. Richardson to this place, where his wounds were dressed by Dr. Tholen and the sufferer is now resting as easily as could be expected. Mr. Parsons was sixty-five feet down the mine shaft when a timber six feet long, one inch thick and twelve inches wide was accidentally dropped from the mouth of the mine. After the sixty-five foot drop it struck Mr. Parsons on the head.

Mrs. Ernest J. Morgan entertained with a very enjoyable card party at her home on Central avenue Monday night complimentary to Mrs. E. F. Tholen, who left Wednesday for a visit with friends and relatives in and around Chicago. The home was made real pretty with seasonal flowers and greenery. The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. C. M. "Yuck" while the gentleman's first prize was captured by Edward M. Lynch. Dr. A. C. Conrad upheld his reputation by cleverly winning the consolation award. The guests included Messrs. and Mesdames E. F. Tholen, J. H. Webster, E. M. Lynch, H. H. Davenport, Frank Ballentyne, A. O. Conrad, W. G. Black, W. C. Wattles, C. M. Turck, Dan Campbell and J. H. The subject will be "Look Up and Lift Up," and the meeting will be led by Rev. Botkin. The pastor will take for his subject at the service at 7:30: "Will the World Be Destroyed; If so, Then What?"

PARENT-TEACHER'S ASSOCIATION

At the regular monthly meeting of the Parents' Teacher association of the Tropico school district, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. S. C. Leppleman, president; Mrs. W. H. Bertow, first vice president; Mrs. Fred A. Collins, second vice president; Miss Iva Hunter, secretary; Mrs. W. H. Spence, treasurer.

Miss May Cornwall's room, Sixth and Seventh grades, was awarded the picture, "The Dutch Windmill," as the largest percentage of parents and guardians was represented by Miss Cornwall's pupils.

Miss Litta Belle Hibben's pupils of the Fifth and Sixth grades rendered several choruses, a pleasing feature of these being observed that all the boys, pupils of Miss Hibben's room assisted in the singing.

Dr. J. H. Gezell of the State Normal, gave an address on medical examination of the pupils and the good results derived therefrom. It was unanimously voted to have the annual school picnic at the close of the schools in June, which will be served in the cool, pretty grove, adjacent to the tennis court of the school grounds. The officers and members of the Parent-Teachers' association will have this picnic in charge, which will relieve the principal, Mrs. McClure, and her corps of teachers of all responsibilities and cares. The dinner will be served cafeteria style.

N. C. BANKS POST ENTERTAINS.

The officers and members of N. P. Banks Post, following the close of the regular monthly meeting at G. A. R. hall, assembled at the home of Mrs. Martha Winnie, widow of the late C. W. Winnie, an active member of N. P. Banks Post, and who gave the Grand Army hall to the Post and Corps of Tropico. Mrs. Winnie had her home decorated in flags which fluttered a welcome to the grizzled veterans who were its noble and brave defenders in the trying days of 1861-1865, while many red roses supported by long graceful stems nodded from bowls and vases giving forth beauty and perfume.

Place cards were dainty silver flags. Rev. J. H. Henley, chaplain of the Post, paid a glowing tribute to Mrs. Winnie, whose patriotism and loyalty to her country, its institutions and flag are so well known.

Capt. J. M. Wells, the soldier-author, and Rev. M. M. Eschmann followed a toast to the hostess, in stirring patriotic talks. At sundown the veterans retired to their homes, when Mrs. Winnie's friends and neighbors assembled and were pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Winnie.

Those assisting Mrs. Winnie were Mrs. Tina Hammond, Mrs. Clarke G. Wilkinson, Mrs. W. C. Seal, Mrs. James Rich, Mrs. Frank Moody and Mrs. John Gaither.

One of the best programs of the Child Study Circle of the West Glendale school was given on Thursday. Details will be given in next week's NEWS.

Sheet and pillow case "comet" parties are the latest fad, but one of the finest looking set of "spooks" can be seen any morning between the hours of 3 and 4 near Fourth and Pacific streets.

The many friends of Mrs. A. A. Ward, Vine street, sympathize with her in the death of her father, Mr. F. E. Smith. Mr. Smith has resided here for some time and was a well-known insurance agent.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Stine entertained the following at dinner recently: Mrs. Addison, Mrs. Daly, Miss Daisy Sprinkle and Mr. Allen Jullia. Later in the evening they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Booth and a jolly evening was spent by all.

The home of Mrs. Wm. Hyatt on West Fourth street was the scene of a most enjoyable affair on the evening of May 5th. The event being a reception of the junior class of nurses of the Glendale hospital, to the senior class of Tropico. The house was beautifully decorated with choice flowers. Music, games and general conversation helped to while away the hours. Dainty refreshments were served and a general good time was had by all. DETROIT JEWEL

YOU cannot afford to risk using your old gasoline stove when you can buy a high grade Detroit Jewel on easy payments of McWhorter Bros. and have a written guarantee besides. Notice, the ovens on a Detroit Jewel are different from any other make. On almost every other make the bread has to be turned to brown both ends alike. We have the largest line to select from in Southern California. Come in and see why McWhorter Bros. can guarantee a Detroit Jewel.

CAUTION—In these days hardly any two makes of gas ranges are constructed alike and when a dealer tries to handle three or four makes and knows nothing about the relative merits of one over the other, he is trying simply to make a sale and is not concerned as to why one is the best range, and consequently the cheapest to operate. Come in and see for yourself why a Detroit Jewel will save you from $5 to a third per cent less gas than any other gas range made. You are to be the judge.

OBITUARY

(Communicated)

Mr. F. E. Smith, who for the past two years has been engaged in the insurance business in Glendale, died on Sunday, May 8th, at 10:35 a. m., of a lingering illness superinduced by asthma. The great Creator has been pleased, out of His mercy, to remove Mr. Smith from the cares and troubles of this transitory existence to a state of eternal rest, and thereby weakened the chain by which his loved ones have been united.

Honest, without question, straightforward in all his dealings, undoubted loyalty and devotion to his family and friends, intellectually a giant, well educated, well poised, Mr. Smith's death has created a great loss to the bereaved family and to the community, in which he was a central figure.

As a fitting tribute to the memory of the departed it is right and proper to say that on the arrival of that momentous hour, when the embers of human life will faintly glimmer in the socket of existence, that his religious devotion may remove the dark shroud, draw aside the sable curtains of the tomb, and bid faith sustain and cheer his departed spirit.

That faith by which we pass the vale of tears
Safe and serene, though oft distressed;
That faith by which we subdue the king of fears,
And go, rejoicing, to our rest."

Mr. F. E. Smith was born in Beverly, Canada, June 21, 1855. He came to California in 1903 and has lived in Redlands, Los Angeles, Long Beach and Glendale. He has been a sufferer from asthma for many years. He was married to Hattie V. Winchester Jan. 1, 1876. Of this union there were five children. A widow and five children survive. They are Mrs. A. A. Ward, Mrs. Will Stewart and Paul V. Smith of Glendale; Mrs. B. M. Rapp and Geo. W. Smith of Long Beach.

Mr. Smith was past exalted ruler of Elks' Lodge No. 110; past noble grand Franklin I. O. O. F. He belonged to Protected Home Circle, Woodmen of the World and Modern Woodmen.

The funeral was held at the Pulliam Undertaking Parlor with the beautiful and solemn service of the I. O. O. F. Interment took place at Forest Lawn.

SCHOOL CENSUS AND THE POPULATION.

The count of children in the Glendale Grammar school district has been completed. The total number of school age (5 to 17) is 570, of whom 308 are boys and 262 girls. Non-census children (under 5) 220, making a total of children below the age of 17 amounting to 790. Last year there were in the same district 463 census children and 169 under five years, a total of 632. A portion of the district is outside the city limits and in that section included in the above-total, are 55 census children and 18 under 5 years. This makes the total number of children under 17 years in Glendale city 714. This would seem to indicate a population of about 2800, which is probably not 100 out of the way. The U. S. census report is not available and will not be for some months, as enumerators are not permitted to give out any information.

He recommends a change in the fire limits of district number three, so that a portion of that district be included in district number two in which open vaults are prohibited.
